Office 101 and 103 North Third.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1906.

Only 11 more days of Harrison.

Secretary to be Hoke Smith's own.

Judge John Schuchman, of Marshall, Ill., who declined the office of Chief Justice of the United States, tendered him by President Cleveland, on the grounds that he did not feel himself competent, died last week.

Tom Hloest, a burly negro, was lynched at Chattanooga Tuesday night for assaulting Mrs. Mary A. Moore, a widow fifty years of age, who resides on Main street, near Gillipie, keeping house for her unmarried son.

The ex-governor of Hawaii pronounced his name Lee-woh-a-hany. That may have been all right in the days when the lady could not read, but now plain "Lee" is a good enough for her. -Lexington Leader.

Ja. C. Edwards, editor of the Elkton Times, has gone to Washington as Secretary to Senator Lincoln.

Handsome lawyer, Jim is one of the brightest fellows on the premises of Kentucky and all of the other states who make him upon being selected for this responsible and lucrative position.

The following cabinet of the State of Iowa as given:

State-Walter G. Graham, Illinois.

Treasurer-John C. Carls, Ky.

War-Daniel S. Lamont, N. Y.

Postoffice-Wilson S. Lamont, N. Y.

Agriculture-Hoke Smith, Georgia.

Justice and Navy not settled, with chances in favor of dark horses.

In the conflict between the Republicans and the Democrats in Kansas last week the Republicans were victorious and now hold the Representatives' Hall by agreement. The army was controlled by Republican officers who refused to obey the orders of the United States Governor and a back down was obliged to follow in the following proclamation. Peace reigns and no blood was shed.

The Wyoming Legislature has adjourned without electing a Senator, which is virtually a triumph for the Democrats, as the Governor, who is a Democrat, will now have to appoint him.

He is expected to name either L. New or C. H. Williams.

This will give the Democrats 41 Senators of their own, without the help of the Populists, and they have a chance to secure another in Montana.

Bert Wing, who killed his wife, Miriam Evans Wing, last November, was given a life sentence at Louisiana last week. His neck was saved by Judge Evans, father of the murdered woman, who asked the jury to give him a life sentence instead of the gallows, a plea of guilty being entered. The result was a great surprise, as it was believed Judge Evans would prosecute Wing to the extent of the law.

In a lake town in Michigan a girl has recovered $500 damages from a steamboat company for naming a boat after her without asking permission, and they must remove the boat. She took offense at a marine boat naming that "Killer Marshall," saying her thoughtless captain had painted, painted with canvased stern and new boilers, will therefore serve as a mail carrier and pole her pretty nose into the lake business for all she is worth. -Courier Journal.

Another Norman has issued a circular letter to the sheriff notifying them that as he has passed the Grand Jury assembly all delinquents whose property was sold prior to 1905, for State and county taxes, to remove the same at any time before January 1, 1906, by paying the taxes with cost of sale and 8 per cent per annum interest on the amount of taxes and costs until paid. All State taxes due prior to 1905 are relinquished under the revenue act of 1902.

Geo. L. Willis, the Times correspondent, makes the following predictions concerning federal appointments for Kentucky: Albert A. Willis, Commissioner of Internal Revenue; C. J. Remont, Second Controller of Treasury; Capt. James Blackwell, United States Marshal; D. M. McLean, Vice Agent; A. B. Buckner, Assistant to Justice; J. T. Shelly, Collector of Louisiana; George Alexander, Collector of the Louisville District; J. F. Dempsey, of Madison, Ky., Collector of the Owensboro District.

A Georgia editor, according to the Atlanta Constitution, says that a clan of tobacco takers by a Georgia State law has changed the complexion of Mr. McKay's cabinet. Does Mr. Hoke Smith have a Kentucky complexion?

CREAM OF NEWS.

Out His Arm Crushed.

Alfred Williams, an N. N. M. V. brakeman, had one of his arms badly crushed at Potomac one day last week while coupling cars. Williams has only been in the railroad company for a short while, and was at one time a sailor and proprietor of the Guthrie Hotel.

Want Like Hot Cakes.

Of the 400 lower floor seats at the Opera House were placed on sale yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, the others having been marked off for the season. Gallop's seats were jammed with people long before that time. The time limit, the Sheriff withdrawing, and Crowley taking his drink left the house. Mr. Davis received his friend the crowd of the interior, but his friend insisted that the man in question was Crowley's "time drink," and going back to the corner of Sixth and Virginia streets, "Toasting A. J.," came up with his man again, who was mounted and in the act of leaving the city. This time he ordered him to back and dismount, which only was obeyed and he was taken into custody. Later he gave bond to answer at the next term of Circuit Court, and was released on his own recognizance. He was "little experience" in Sheriffing.

The Handsome of All Colors.

This proud distinction is generally conceded to the United States' twenty-dollar gold piece, a marvel of beauty in design and finish. The brilliant of God's handwork is a handsome man, in the bloom of his life; if she is Dr. Francis Pickens, the President, who will restore her. Ladies, who use this precious remedy are unconscious in the plague, for it cures those countenances which are the base of their sex—irregularities, dragging-down pains, inflammation, hysteria, sleeplessness, and the "all-gone" sensations which lurk in their daily lives. A tonic and nerve, without alcohol.

Dr. Johnson, an old colored man at Elkton, died on the evening of Feb. 11. The body was prepared for burial and neighbors gathered over it through the night. Sunday morning just before the funeral was to take place a colored woman took a basin of water and towel and damped the face of the dead body. She was the wife of the dead man and was weeping and exclaimed: "What do I care for you, you dead man? The dead negro had been in a trance for six weeks before he died. He is still alive and may recover."

A. C. Banks desires to inform the public that he is now sole proprietor of the well known and popular Star Barber Shop on Seventh street, which has been conducted for several years under the name of Jones & Banks. He desires to extend thanks for past liberal patronage, and respectfully solicits a share of same in future. This barber shop is conveniently located, being only half square from Main street, and is equipped with the most improved stylish barbers' furniture. Everything in connection is clean and inviting and seeking for skillful and polite workmen are employed. If you are not already a customer of Banks a trial and you'll be pleased.

On a Thursday surrendered at Crofton last Thursday to Sheriff Davis and gave bond for $7,000, with J. E. Croft, A. R. Croft, D. J. Crabtree, W. J. Crabtree and J. H. Crabtree as sureties. He will be arraigned for trial Monday, Feb. 27.

This is Truly for You.

It has been truly said that one half the world does not know how the other half lives. Comparatively few of us have had the opportunity to see the world as it is. We are so busy with our own affairs that we have no time to spare. We are so busy with our own affairs that we have no time to spare. We are so busy with our own affairs that we have no time to spare.
